Task 7. Заполни пропуски, чтобы получился диалог, используя предложения перед текстом. Одно из них – лишнее.

Where are the kangaroos?
 What does it look like?
 They are so funny.
 The baby is coming out.
 Listen to that elephant!
 That's OK, Susan.
 All right.

At the Zoo

John: Here we are at the zoo. I like it!

Susan: Isn't it loud?

John: Yes. It's very loud. And look at its huge trunk! Elephants can carry heavy things with their trunks.

Susan: Yes, I know. Where are we going next?

John: Let's go and see the kangaroos.

Susan: Can we see the monkeys first? They are my favourite animals at the zoo.

John: _____
 The monkeys are this way. Here they are.

Susan: Oh look! That monkey is climbing up high.

John: And that monkey is swinging by its tail. The tail is so long!

Susan: Aww! Look at the little baby with its mother. I like watching the monkeys. _____

John: Yes. The monkeys are funny. Shall we go and see the kangaroos now?

Susan: OK. _____

John: The kangaroos are this way. There they are. Look at that big kangaroo hopping along.

Susan: Look at that kangaroo. I think it has a baby. Yes. The baby is looking out of its mother's pouch. Oh! _____

_____ It's hopping around on the grass.

John: A baby kangaroo is called a 'joey'. It's climbing back into the pouch now.

Susan: I'm so happy to see the baby joey. Thank you for inviting me to the zoo today, John.

John: _____ I'm glad you could come with me.
